FRANCE DISAPPOINTS AMERICA

The spirit of the very large part of the American people have been with France in her efforts to require Germany to fulfill the terms and obligations of the Versailles treaty. This attitude has resulted not alone from the righteousness of the cause, but from the fact that the American people have had for the people of France a feeling of sympathy and understanding during the war.

The popular conception in the United States of the French has been that they are warm-hearted, impulsive, generous and quick to respond to appeals for aid to those in distress. Being a Christian nation it has been commonly believed that the people of France have been righteous and indignant at the inhuman butchery practiced by the Turks in their war of extermination against the people of the Near East. It has been taken for granted that in common with other Christian nations of the world, France has been doing her part to assist in alleviating the indescribable suffering of the victims of the Turkish subterfuge.

Realizing the great need for handling over resources to be applied to the work of rehabilitating her war-swept land and industries, it was not beyond expectation that France would be able to do as much for America or England, but it has all the while been presumed that as much was being done as circumstances would permit, and that there was the very earnest desire to help the starving women and children of Armenia.

It therefore comes as a distinctly unpleasant shock and all disappointment to Americans to know from the testimony of Mrs. Knatch at the School on Sunday evening that the French have been apparently so indifferent to the sufferings of the people of the Near East that the contributions to that cause have amounted to only $15,000, or only about three times what was raised by the comparatively small part of the population which lived Mrs. Knatch here and at Uniontown.

As knowledge of France's lack of charity in so appealing a cause becomes widespread in the United States, much of the sympathy Americans have manifested in her behalf will be lost. The fact that the French have so far failed of their duty to humanity at a time when land are in travels of losing their very existence as a people than France was at any time during the war in Europe or losing her identity as a nation, reflects discredit upon France. So discreditably in fact, that she is losing the confidence of the American people which they have willingly sent to many of her sons in which they believed to drive back a heartless and merciless invader.

The fact that France's withholding of aid to the starving mothers and children of the Near East is through fear of offending the politicians of Turkey and the leaders of the bloodthirsty armadas compelling her army, makes the offense all the more to be condemned. To Americans it is incomprehensible that any nation, whose God is the Lord, can lend aid or comfort or show sympathy with any other nation whose avowed purpose and policy is to supplant Christianity with the Crescent, or Muslimism, and in the pursuit thereof practice heinous acts of brutality with a view to literally exterminating the "Christian dogs."

True, the people of France as individuals, may be, and it is believed they are, not in sympathy with the men in authority who determine questions of national policy, but being citizens of a republic, not an autocracy, the French have it within their power to demand a change in attitude on this question. That the situation in the Near East has for many generations been dominated in accordance with anti-Christian ideas and practices having in reality been part of a plan to drive Christ out of that quarter of the globe, and to establish a false religion in His stead, has been an in-delicate of every Christian nation in the world, and most covers in the case of those nations which have pondered to Turkish political favor.

As France, or any other nation, values the esteem and good will of America, the time has come when its government and its people must pursue such a course with respect to the situation in the Near East, and particularly toward the millions of innocent victims of Turkish cruelty and barbarity, as will show to the world that the exigencies of humanitarian "politics" have no altogether outweighed the considerations of Christian compassion for the suffering and distressed.

South Connellsville

SOUTH CONNELLSVILLE, Feb. 13. (Associated Press.)—The fourth quarter of the Capitan-Mount Pleasant Institute game on the Capitan floor last evening set the Capitan scoring machine for the final split in the last few minutes of the game which enabled it to overcome a one-point lead and win one of the most thrilling games of basketball that has witnessed on the Capitan gym.

Ambridge was no longer in the game when he received a pass and shot a field goal putting Capitan one point in the lead. Then Capitan went wild.

When the ball was thrown up from center again the whole Capitan team seemed to be after it, with the result that the Institute team forgot to keep its eyes open and Ambridge was again given a good pass, and again scored a field goal.

Capitan team felt as though he had one more field goal in his system, and he finally found his favorite spot, and of course it was just two more points to the "glass blowers" credit.

On the other hand the Mount Pleasant team put up one of the best lights for victory that has been seen on the Capitan floor. The first quarter ended 6-6, but in the second quarter the visitors scored some fast floor work and some pretty shots, winning the best end of a 17-13 score at the end of the first half.

It was in the third and fourth quarters that the teams would trade the score and make it again, until the last few minutes of the game when the final split of the Capitan outfit carried them over the top.

This was the deciding game of a three-game series, Capitan winning the first by two points and the Institute team winning the second game by three points.

Holmes was the individual star for the visitors, catching nine field goals while Moorman, Gardner and Ambridge played exceptional good for the winners. The line-up:

Capitan—23. Mount Pleasant—28. DeBolt, 4. Ambridge, 3. Moorman 2. Gardner 2. Jaque, 2. DeBolt, 4. Ambridge, 3. Moorman 2. Gardner 2. Jaque, 2.

Field goals: Moorman 5 out of 8; DeBolt, 4 out of 6; Ambridge, 3 out of 4; Gardner, 2 out of 3; Jaque, 2 out of 3.

Substitutions: Tannehill for DeBolt, Griffith for Ambridge, Gardner for Tannehill, Tannehill for Griffith, Burkhardt for Gardner, Ambridge for Burkhardt, Spinks for Holmes.

Referee—Fisher.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Now Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Washington, D. C.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation which a physician said I would have to have. I have a very bad case of hemorrhoids. My system was all run down for two years after my little girl was born. Then I read of your wonderful medicine and decided to try it. I could hardly drag myself out of the bed, and after taking six bottles of the Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman. I now do all my housework, also washing and ironing, and do not know what real trouble is. My health is fine, and I weigh 140 pounds. When I started taking it I weighed 97 pounds. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any one who is suffering from female trouble or is run down. You may not know what I mean, but I am only too glad to let suffering women know what the Vegetable Compound did for me." Mrs. Ida Hestery, 1622 Park Ave. S. E., Washington, D. C.

Such letters from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ordinance for Improving Two Streets Read

Ordinance for the improvement of Snyder street from the end of the present paving to the junction with the gate road to Northville and for Cottage avenue from Apple street to Fayette street were introduced in Council Monday night, along with an ordinance for a sewer trunk line for Snyder street and its connection with the Run avenue line.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the preparation of an ordinance for the paving of Snyder street from Indiana avenue to Newmyer avenue. The plan will be to improve the section to Green street this year, possibly the whole, the latter section depending on the financial status of the city.

At the suggestion of Councilman C. M. Stone a resolution was adopted directing the auditor to proceed with the collection of unpaid assessments for the paving of Snyder street between Newmyer avenue and South Connelville line. If this money, amounting to over $6,000 is paid, it will be used toward the resurfacing program.

The West Penn System was exonerated from taxes for two houses near the car barns no longer used for residential purposes. The Greenwalds, 1240 Snyder street, have a residence exonerated from taxes on the site of its new office on the West Side, also Cohen of the West Side, who is blind was relieved of the $32.41 taxes on his property.

Councilman Stone reported a reduction of $33,000 in the bonded debt of the city last year. The total now is $281,000.

Kellogg's Bran is nature's relief from the terrors of constipation!

Never make light of constipation or any one of its symptoms—there is no telling what disease you may be contracting. The one thing to do—IMMEDIATELY—is to fight constipation to the last ditch. Not with pills or cathartics; they cannot give you lasting relief! Not with foods with a low bran content; they do not have the bran-bulk to do the work! What you need, what will give you permanent relief is Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN! Kellogg's Bran is scientifically prepared to relieve constipation. It will relieve the chronic case or the mild case. You need it, your family needs it!

But you must eat Kellogg's Bran regularly—each day! At least two tablespoonfuls in chronic cases this amount with each meal! And, eating Kellogg's Bran is a delight rather than a hardship. It has a delicious, appealing nut-like flavor that wins the most fastidious appetite.

Every day when you eat Kellogg's Bran as a cereal, sprinkled on your favorite hot or cold cereal or cooked or mixed with hot cereals, think of the health-creating power it contains for you! Think how Kellogg's Bran is sweeping and cleansing the alimentary tract, how it is driving out the toxic poisons and freeing your system from danger of dreaded diseases! Your physician will recommend it.

Kellogg's Bran is extra-delicious made with only the best wheat bran. Recipes on every package.

All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran; it is also obtainable at first-class hotels, restaurants and individual packages. Ask for it at your restaurant.

New Interest Marks City League Floor Contests; Important Game Tonight

Wednesday Night Expected to Mark Turning Point of Game.

FEATURES ARE BOOKED

In the City League tonight the St. Vincent Club of Leisnering, admitted last Saturday, steps into one of the hardest contests on the schedule, meeting the Casey Club. The new aggregation, taking the place of the City Veterans, is at present credited with no defeats and no victories. This evening's contest will place the outfit either at the top or bottom of the league.

If the St. Vincent five is victorious it will oust the Caseys from first place and the Green team with the Unity Frat for the lead position. If Casey wins, however, it will leave that position and the Frat tied. Then these two teams meet on Thursday night for the first time.

New interest has been created among fans with the introduction of last season's champions. Right away a good week's entertainment is presented—St. Vincent and the Casey tonight and the Unity Frat and the Caseys on Thursday.

In addition the Unity Frat plays a postponed game with the Baltimore & Ohio five tonight. The game was scheduled for last Friday but was held over. On Thursday, the Legion and Baltimore & Ohio play following the Frat-Casey mix-up.

All games are played at the Parochial School Hall. There are seats for fans and plenty of space, every bit of which gives a clear view of the floor.

The Connellsville High School five goes to North Braddock tonight. The game is one scheduled in the W. P. I. A. League. The Caseys defeated North Braddock in a game here recently and will endeavor to duplicate the feat this evening.

Best Boxing Card Ever Offered to City Opinion Of Fans on Coming Battle

Local fight fans are anxiously waiting for Wednesday evening to roll around when they will have the opportunity of witnessing the biggest and best boxing card ever staged in this community. Wednesday's program is nothing less than a diversion from the usual boxing program adding a touch of local ring history. Tickets for the semi-final windup between Young Plaz and Danny Pascoe of Connellsville, Pa. are expected to be sold out by the time the fight begins. The main event, a ten-round battle, is expected to be as strong as the headline. Jackie Brown, the former Connellsville fighter, now of Pittsburgh, meets Joe Selwyn, also of Pittsburgh, in the third go of the evening. Young Dabney and Young Bledsoe, both Connellsville boxers, are scheduled to go four rounds in the second attraction.

Norwin High School team, which is setting a fast pace this season will be here. The Caseys won by a "shut" in a game at that place.

Local Collegians Lose at Leisnering

The Connellsville Collegians, in their second game, last night played in a tree scoring contest with St. Vincent at Leisnering. The final result was 52-42. Ross led in the scoring for the losers and Pritchard and A. Rutledge, each racking seven scored high for the home team.

HEINZ KETCHUP WEEK

February 12th to 17th Inclusive

Your Neighborhood Grocers whose advertisements appear on this page are making special offerings in Heinz Tomato Ketchup as a part of the National Heinz Ketchup Week, and all join in recommending this delicious condiment. We want to establish for ourselves reputations for the handling of Nationally Advertised Quality Foods and especially to impress our friends with the zesty flavor of Heinz Tomato Ketchup. That is why we are sampling Heinz Ketchup to our customers this week.

The difference between Heinz Tomato Ketchup and ordinary ketchup often is the difference between a successful meal and a poor one. For Heinz Ketchup makes things taste better because they use only vine ripened tomatoes grown under Heinz supervision, carefully selected spices, their own grinding, all assembled and prepared in the most modern and sanitary kitchens backed by one motive always to produce the finest possible flavor. And so when tomatoes can't get to Heinz quickly enough to preserve their red-ripe freshness, Heinz goes to the tomatoes. Where tomatoes grow best you will find Heinz gardens and Heinz tomato Ketchup Kitchens.

Be sure to taste Heinz Ketchup when you visit any of these stores.
